Nevesily, Ruby the rabbit went as fast as lightning into the Supermarket, the other rabbits went and chased her after her but, there was a problem they thought how would they get in there. How would they ever get in and rescue Ruby?

They tried getting in. There was a problem there was two scary doors stopping them. Ruby went by a human to get in but they were scared of these doors because they were opening and closing. They thought that they would get squished and the doors were ~~breath~~ breath-taking and very dangerous. ~~There~~ There was a basket and ~~a human~~ by the automatic doors, a human put their bag in, it and they all hoped in but one of the rabbits didn't want to get in the bag, he wanted to think of another plan. They all thought of a plan. One said "X You must do what I say you must come with us" but he refused. What would they do? They must had to her, it's now or never.

Avenchaly they got in and closed their eyes hoping that Ruby would have been there. When they opened their eyes all they saw was loads of rules (Raws) gone up together and loads of sliding tables (Tills) and loads of humans shopping with their children, they got nerves and to saw loads of human food and one of the rabbits called Joe found some rabbit food and ran to it. He ate ~~it~~ ~~all~~ ~~have~~ a bag of rabbit food. One of the other rabbits called Daisy went over and said to Joe "Try to stop eating" but he carried on eating. They tried ^{looking} for Ruby and may seen loads of sliding seats (Trolleys) with loads, loads and loads of food filled in them then they seen loads of sweets and then seen Ruby, they all ran got her Joe said "Were have you been". Then all the humans got shopping and nearly ran Ruby over because she tried off again. Luckily they caught her in time. They got Daisy and tried to stay together as a team.

Ruby was in danger, there was a human coming closer to her. She hid behind some pop and shook the pop and it exploded like a volcano erupting. It went all over the floor, but a little girl saw Ruby do it, this meant that Ruby was in danger. Ruby stayed still and the little girl looked at Ruby and started playing with her putting make-up on her face. The little girl's mum saw it she had seen it she had been naughty. Ruby was scared and full of frights and then her friends bled. However Ruby and the other rabbits were friends of what was going to happen.

~~They looked for their sister Ruby and soon by~~
The rabbits rescued Ruby from the little girl incase she tried taking Ruby home with her. After getting Ruby, Daisie and Joe asked her to apologise to the other rabbits for running off. She apologised sadly to them they were happy to see her. Joe asked Daisie if she was ok after finding Ruby because she was worried about what could happen to her. They all watched Ruby incase she ran off again. They were all thinking how silly Ruby had been.
